WITNESSES DENY DEFENCE FRAMED

Crown Seeks to Show Carefully Prepared Story Shields Dr. Boak in Manslaughter Trial

DUCK CAR OCCUPANTS GIVE SMASH ACCOUNT

Mysterious Stranger Appears in Case—Discovered on Lonely Road Agitatedly Wiping Machine Off

WITH the examination of three of the main witnesses for the defence in the manslaughter trial of Dr. Boak yesterday afternoon, there was revealed more fully than before the lines upon which each side in the case will base its argument. These witnesses were three of the six occupants of the two cars that were on the scene either at the time of the killing of Messrs. Ballantyne and McLachlan or very soon afterwards, according to whether the contention of the crown or the defence is believed.

They were C. W. Duck and the other two occupants of his car, Messrs. W. Higgs and W. Turpel, both medical students. All denied that there had been collision to produce a defence story. All denied seeing anyone within the line of vision while the Boak car was passing the Duck car, and all denied seeing that anyone had been struck when the cars were passing. They had never gone back to see if anything had happened as it never occurred to them that anything untoward could have taken place.

Admission was made that steps had been taken to conceal the dilemma into which the two cars had got. This was explained on the ground that they did not want others coming along making them a laughing-stock owing to the wreck of their cars. Dr. Duck testified that he saw no one on the road. Mr. Higgs admitted that quite a long way back, just about the time the cars had passed, he saw three persons, and Mr. Turpel about this point thought he had seen two persons. Dr. Boak, according to the defence, had seen a shadow or shadows. In the case of Mr. Turpel, the evidence was that he said he saw a shadow.

PREMIER DECLINES TO TALK POLITICS

REITERATES STATEMENTS RELATIVE TO FREIGHT RATES
Cabinet Will Hold Meeting This Morning

Premier Oliver, whose rapid recovery from the cold he brought back from the west with him on Wednesday, declined to discuss the political situation in the Province and the plans of the Liberal Government in regard to cabinet reorganization. A meeting of the cabinet would be held this morning, he said, when the question would be dealt with and a decision made.

The Premier had a conference yesterday morning with Dr. K. C. MacDonald, Provincial Secretary, who was defeated in the recent by-election contest at North Okanagan, but who was permitted to attend his office yesterday, declined to discuss the political situation in the Province and the plans of the Liberal Government in regard to cabinet reorganization.

Asked regarding the recent meeting of the Board of Railway Commissioners at Ottawa, which he attended as representative of British Columbia, Premier Oliver reiterated the views he gave out in an interview Wednesday morning in Vancouver, and which were published yesterday morning. He said, he said, that the dispute over freight rates and the discrimination against the coast caused by the enactment of the Crown West Pass agreement was not by any means ended, but so far as his government was concerned, if fair treatment was not secured from the ruling of the Railway Commissioners an appeal to higher authority would be made.

DR. W. H. AIKINS OF TORONTO DROPS DEAD

Son of Sir John A. Macdonald, Secretary of State and Brother of Manitoba Governor, Succumbs

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—Dr. William Henry Aikins, aged 45, prominent by known medical practitioner of this city, died suddenly this afternoon. He was stricken while in the midst of his professional duties at his office and death followed within a few minutes. He was born in Peel County. The Aikins family was one which was, and since has been prominent in the public and professional life of Canada. The father, Hon. J. C. Aikins, was Secretary of State in the government of Sir John A. Macdonald and the present Sir James Aikins, Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, is one of his sons and a brother of the late Dr. Aikins.

LONDON, Oct. 2.—John Quiller Rowett, prominent financier and business magnate, who financed the last expedition of Sir Ernest Shackleton to the Antarctic in 1921-22, was found dead in his London residence today.

SEE DEFEAT OF LABOR CABINET

Opinion in Old Country Hardening as to Certainty of Outcome of the Votes of Censure

MR. CLYNES ATTRIBUTES JEALOUSY TO MR. ASQUITH

Talk of Mr. Baldwin Having the First Refusal in Case of the Defeat of the Present Premier

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Interest in the Irish Bill, which passed through all its stages in the House tonight, is being dwarfed by the buzz of political gossip predicting an early defeat of the Government and general elections soon. Nothing developed today in the political situation, and everything remains in speculation. But opinion seems to be hardening that either on a vote of confidence next Wednesday, or on the question of the Russian treaty, which is to come up early in November, the MacDonald Government will be overthrown.

There was talk tonight that in the event of the downfall of the present Labor Government, King George would summon former Premier Baldwin to form a new Government and that Mr. Baldwin would decline the task, and that then former Premier Asquith would be invited to take up the burden.

Would Ask for Dissolution

This speculation, however, in some quarters was characterized as improbable, it being asserted that should Mr. MacDonald be defeated he would almost certainly advise King George to dissolve Parliament, whereupon the Labor Government would readily appeal to the country, trusting to its achievements, especially in regard to foreign policy and Premier MacDonald's success in helping to make successful the Dawes plan, to induce the country to give Labor another trial.

PROMISE PROTOCOL SUBMISSION SOON

MR. CLYNES INFORMS COMMONS AS TO GENERAL LABORS
Subject Too Large for Question and Answer Treatment—Will Fix Date for Discussion

LONDON, Oct. 2.—J. R. Clynes, Lord Privy Seal and deputy leader of the House of Commons, replying to a question as to the progress of the League of Nations assembly at Geneva and the British contribution to the League of Nations, said it was impossible to deal piecemeal with the matter by means of questions and answers. The subject, he said, was of too great a magnitude for this.

With regard to the work of the assembly, Mr. Clynes said that the arbitration protocol was approved by the government until such government formally approved it. The British representatives at Geneva, he continued, had made it clear that approval could be given only after full consideration by Parliament. An opportunity for discussion of the matter in the House of Commons would be found at the earliest possible moment, Mr. Clynes promised.

MASSING TROOPS AGAINST SHANGHAI

Twenty Thousand Men Prepared for Battle
Outbreak Now Expected at Shanghai, Conditions on All Other Sectors Being Quiet

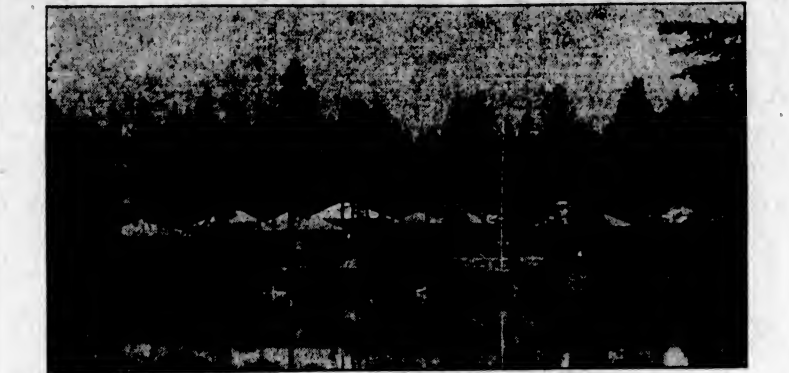

SHANGHAI, Oct. 3 (2:45 p.m.).—Twenty thousand men in direct command of Kiangsu Province generals attacking Shanghai are being massed on the Shanghai-Hangchow railway line south of Shanghai, twenty-eight miles southwest of Shanghai, in preparation for a major engagement there.

This information was contained in apparently authentic reports from Shanghai, normally a city of 50,000, received in Shanghai this morning. The Shanghai defense forces, waiting for the Kiangsu attack, were said to number about 6,500.

Chicago Wheat Soars
CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—For the first time since 1921 wheat today rose above $1.50 a bushel. May delivery here soared to $1.51 1/4. Urgent forecasts for the Kiangsu attack gave a big lift to all grain values, rice especially.

Suicides on Car Tracks
TORONTO, Oct. 2.—Throwing himself in front of an electric car from Weston, on the C.N.R. tracks, William Sheelings, aged 55, was instantly killed today. He was a patient in the general hospital and on his hospital card was written: "This or the asylum."

PRINCE HAS HIKE IN JASPER PARK

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS HAS DAY ALL TO HIMSELF

Takes Fourteen-Mile Walk While Enjoying Mountain Scenery—Entertains Railway Officials

JASPER, Alta., Oct. 2.—The Prince of Wales had a day completely to himself, free from the crowds of people that have gathered around him at every point previously visited.

Arriving here at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the Prince was met by Colonel Maynard Rogers, superintendent of the Jasper National Park. He spent the rest of the day wandering on foot along the many mountain trails in the vicinity of the lodge. The huge totem pole was an object of interest, and the unusual mountain scenery, especially in the vicinity of Maligne Gorge, appeared to be attractive to him. During the day he walked a distance of fourteen miles.

After entertaining a few park and railway officials at dinner, the Prince left for Vancouver, at which point he will arrive Friday.

FISH AND PAPER IN AUSTRALIAN PACT

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF RECENTLY ARRANGED PACT
Canada to Grant Antipodes British Preference on Many Articles of Food as Well as Fruits

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—Further details of the proposed Australian-Canadian trade pact were announced today in a joint statement issued by the Department of Finance and the Department of Trade and Commerce, following the receipt of a cable from the acting Canadian trade commissioner in Melbourne, announcing the passage of the proposed agreement without amendment by both Houses of the Australian Parliament.

Australia extends the British preference to Canada on textile gloves, linotype and other printing machinery, typewriters, aluminum rotary graining machines, adding and computing machines and cash registers. The British preference is also extended to include newsprint, printing paper in rolls and writing and typewriting paper. The Australian intermediate tariff is offered on corns, iron and steel tubes, pipes of specified diameter, golf shoes, rubber boots, shoes and plimsolls, chassis unassembled and assembled, and vehicle parts, specially suited to the Australian tariff under item 253F.

In return Canada proposes to offer the British preference on certain items, and French treaty rates on wines, brandy and champagne.

Enduring Memorial To Be Erected to War Heroes Here

THE Canadian army came into being the moment Berlin was taken. To say that, indeed, is to be less than accurate, for the day before Germany declared war on Russia and invaded Poland, the Canadian army was already in existence. The official call for troops was promulgated throughout the Dominion on August 4, and the first enlistments were promptly made at many points within twenty-four hours. So was born the First Contingent, that hardy band which swarmed to the colors from East and West and North, as far and as wide as men ever only marched to war. To the many Victorians who went with that contingent and who never returned the Capital of British Columbia seeks to raise an enduring memorial.

GENERAL SMUTS MAKES PROPHECY

SAYS NATIONALISTS' TERM OF OFFICE OVER-ESTIMATED
Spots System Now Introduced, and Party Affiliation Only Qualification for Office

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Former Premier J. C. Smuts, of South Africa, in a speech at Marlborough yesterday, according to The Daily Telegraph's Cape Town correspondent, confessed to recent speeches by supporters of the Nationalists, suggesting that the Nationalists would be in power in South Africa for all time, and he prophesied that the present government would be out sooner than the South African party, of which Mr. Smuts is leader, really desired.

The former Premier said that personally he was anxious that the country should have full opportunity of putting the promises of the Nationalists, as well as their statesmanship, to the practical test. He added that his worst fears as to the Nationalist government were already being realized.

DEMENTED FATHER SMOTHERED CHILDREN

Ottawa Man's Statement Tells of the Killing of Wife and Two Little Daughters

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—The two daughters of James Buchanan Pirie, who were slain in a triple murder which involved the death of their mother, when on Tuesday night, were smothered today by Pirie, self-confessed murderer of his wife and two daughters, to Coroner Craig. He also told the coroner that he smothered the children after having struck his wife with a stick of some sort.

Pirie said he could not remember what he used to smother his daughters, Kathleen, aged seven, and Jean, aged six. The coroner stated the contents of the children's stomachs would not now be analyzed.

By Vote of 251 to 99 House Deals With Boundary Question and Passes Matter to Lords

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The Irish bill, providing for a commission to adjust the boundary between Ulster and the Free State, has passed through all its stages earlier than the most sanguine had expected. It passed its third reading by a vote of 251 to 99. The bill will go to the House of Lords, where it is practically certain to be adopted.

The House of Commons now adjourns until Wednesday when the debate on the Conservative censure motion will begin.

BANK LOST SEVEN AND HALF MILLIONS

ACCOUNTANT STATES HOME INSTITUTION'S DEFICIT

Huge Total Did Not Include Losses Made by Western Branches of Defunct Concern

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—It is unlikely that the trial of Sidney H. Jones, Home Bank auditor, will be completed tomorrow as the crown case was not finished when the court adjourned today. Major A. E. Nash, chartered accountant, has completed his evidence, but the crown added another witness, calling William W. Gladwell, a chartered accountant, who had made an examination of the Home Bank after its failure, for the Minister of Finance at Ottawa. Mr. Nash was in the witness box most of the day, giving in great detail evidence of the accounts of the Home Bank, its securities and its loans. After the completion of the crown case tomorrow, Dr. Jones will testify and there will also be some character evidence submitted by the defence and the addresses of the counsel will follow.

OPTIMISM REACHES CLIMAX ON COAST

Mr. George N. Campbell, President of Bank of Nova Scotia, says City—Days Prospects Brighter

"The further west we came the more optimistic we became," Mr. George N. Campbell, president of the Bank of Nova Scotia, told The Colonist last night after his arrival by motor from Nanaimo in the course of a Western tour.

Accompanied by Mr. J. A. McLeod, general manager of the bank, Mr. Campbell is a guest at the Empress Hotel.

Asked about his impression of economic conditions in the West, Mr. Campbell replied that the situation has undoubtedly taken a turn for the better.

CHINESE WALK OUT OF LEAGUE

Failure of Election to Non-Permanent Seat Results in Entire Delegation Leaving Assembly

ALL WAR SOUGHT TO BE OUTLAWED BY PROTOCOL

Fifth Gathering of Members Completes Agreement and Unanimously Advises Its Adoption by States

GENEVA, Oct. 2.—The fifth assembly of the League of Nations ended its labor today by unanimously adopting a resolution recommending that all states accept the protocol of arbitration and security.

Apart from the elaboration of the protocol for the peaceful settlement of international disputes, the outstanding feature of the session was the insistence of the delegates that economic problems, particularly those regarded as belonging exclusively to the domestic jurisdiction of states, must be solved on an international basis if all causes of war would really be removed. This insistence was voiced by several speakers, especially those representing France. It is implied in the protocol itself, and for a time dominated the discussions of the European jurists as they strove to fashion a pact which would not unduly alarm all nations which jealously guard the doctrine of state rights.

Outlaw All War

The idea behind the movement, as explained to the Associated Press by the jurists tonight, is that the League having desired to outlaw all law, must logically turn its attention to all possible causes of conflict and endeavor to eradicate them. Fed by the growing spirit of internationalism, as a complement to nationalism and state sovereignty, the jurists contend that world opinion is now demanding that certain vital problems affecting the world as a whole, such as immigration and equitable distribution of raw materials, can no longer be left to the exclusive control of any state or states, but must be examined with a view to their equitable settlement in the best interests of all so the economic causes of war may be eliminated.

All the jurists admitted the delicacy of the problem involved and emphasized that it must be attacked with the greatest caution and after scientific study. They were of the opinion that it would probably furnish one of the great features of the proposed codification of international law under the auspices of the League, which the assembly has decided to authorize.

Chinese Leave Assembly

Kind words for America and Americans marked the memorable closing hours of the assembly—hours which the Chinese delegation marked dramatically by getting up and solemnly walking out of the auditorium when the assembly refused to grant China a non-permanent seat in the council. This resolution was generally interpreted that the number of permanent seats, which is six, would be augmented so as to permit the inclusion of China. Nevertheless, today's election brought no change either in the number of the present holders of the seats, because of the refusal of Czechoslovakia, Spain, Sweden and Uruguay were all re-elected. China received only fourteen votes, whereas the victors received from twenty-seven to forty votes.

QUEBEC FINANCIER KILLED IN SLIDE

SIR WILLIAM PRICE LOST LIFE AT PAPER MILLS

High Bank at Falls Gives Way and Buries Party—Body Has Not Been Recovered

QUEBEC, Oct. 2.—Sir William Price, head of the firm of Price Brothers & Company, of Quebec, is reported to have been instantly killed this morning when the falls at the "Eastern Wood Pile," below the falls at Kenogami, where a small landslide occurred on Tuesday.

This morning the party, consisting of Sir William Price and two engineers, Messrs. A. A. McDermid and N. Munro, left the mill to inspect the site of Tuesday's landslide. Whether they were standing at the top or bottom of the "Wood Pile" is not yet known, but suddenly the whole side of the hill came down with a rumble, burying Sir William. The primary cause of the disaster, which besides engulfing Sir William Price, carried Messrs. McDermid and Munro some distance, was the inflow of a volume of water into the gully, which carried with it block of pulpwood, trees, etc., and undermined the banks.

CABLE STATES BRITAIN MAY REJECT COMPROMISE

Acceptance of Plan Would Forever Keep United States Out of League of Nations Is Claim

TORONTO, Oct. 2.—The Toronto Star says editorially tonight:

"A cable from London says that Britain may reject the League of Nations' plan as amended at Japan's suggestion. If one member of the League can do so, another can. Canada, as a member of the League, will probably reject the plan, even if Britain fails to do so."

"If Japan is not through with the League and anxious to see it end, her course in the present case is not adroit. Her plan would mean, on the other hand, that all hope of the United States entering the League would have to be abandoned. Canada, too, could never permit British Columbia to be coerced by the League into admitting Oriental immigration against her will."

"The League must get used to being on its feet and able to stand up to running headlong into such difficulties as these."

Australia Opposes Plan

SYDNEY, Australia, Oct. 2.—The consensus of opinion here with regard to the desirability of the League with Japan over the arbitration protocol at Geneva, is that Australia is opposed to any interference with Australia's sovereign rights. The Morning Herald says that Australia will not allow the League of Nations to dictate its immigration policy.

"The decision reached was probably to save the face of Japan," The Herald adds. "It is important to note that the clause in question in the arbitration protocol is permissive, not mandatory. We hope the League will think twice before exercising its option in the matter of immigration. To bring the immigration question within the purview of the League would probably lead to a dissolution of the League itself."

CRISIS FORECAST DECLARED CERTAIN

OPPOSITION MOVE IS SURE TO DITCH LABOR CABINET

Vote on Mr. Asquith's Motion on the Soviet Treaty Deemed Likely to Bring Government Down

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Talk has again arisen of the "imminent fall of the Labor Government," and the probability of a general election before Christmas. It may be recalled that similar expectations have been raised more than once since the Laborites assumed office "without power," but this time the forecast is declared to be the real thing.

The crisis, for so it is regarded on all sides, came suddenly late last night when notice was given in Parliament of two motions against the Government. One of the Conservatives censured the Government's conduct in reference to the abandonment of criminal proceedings against James Ross Campbell, acting editor of the Workers' Weekly, a Communist publication.

The other by the Liberals, voiced disapproval of the Anglo-Russian Treaty which, according to the wording of the motion, "instead of providing a genuine contribution toward dissolving the problem of unemployment, threatens to divert resources which are urgently needed for national and imperial development, and contemplate that the British taxpayer should be made liable for further loans to Russia, raised by means of a guarantee of the British Government as the condition upon which the private claims of certain British creditors should be recognized or met by the Soviet Republic."

May Bring Government Down
Of the two motions the latter is regarded for the moment as more certain than the former to bring the Government down, because the attitude of the Liberals toward the Conservatives' censure motion is yet rather obscure. Mr. Asquith, addressing yesterday a Liberal party meeting at which the anti-treaty resolution was approved, said that if the Conservatives submitted a "reasonable motion" regarding the handling of the Campbell case, the Liberals should support it. Whether Sir Robert Horne's motion can be considered to fulfill this condition of reasonableness is yet undetermined.

It has been recently understood that the Liberals were prepared to support a motion condemning Attorney-General Patrick Hastings for mis-handling the Campbell case, but whether to support it if it involved the whole Government. It had been further believed, however, that Premier MacDonald was determined to stand by the Attorney-General, and that if the latter were censured, the Premier would not allow him to resign while the rest of the Government remained in office but would retire with him. The distinction, therefore, seems a fine one for the Liberals to make.

One supposition is that they will refrain from voting on Sir Robert's motion, leaving to the Conservatives the task of turning down the Government, which the Conservatives are sufficiently numerous to do if the Liberals leave the Laborites to their fate.

In Accord on Treaty Question
The situation regarding the anti-treaty motion is much clearer, as it is inconceivable that the Conservatives will abstain from supporting a motion directly aimed at defeating the Russian treaty, and the Government is regarded as certain to be supported by a big majority. The treaty, however, will not come up for discussion for nearly a month, so the Government is certain of that much lease of life if not defeated in the meantime on the Horne resolution. It is yet to be discovered whether the Government necessarily will regard either or both of the questions as constituting a "capital issue" upon which alone they have declared they will resign, but the consensus of opinion for the moment is that they will not do so.

The Daily Herald, Labor organ, which presumably derived its information from Government sources, says the Premier will appeal to the country if defeated on either issue. The paper speaks as though the Labor party would welcome an opportunity to test their strength at the polls, believing the electorate would return them to Parliament with a majority which would give them power as well as office.

The question is raised, if the Government is beaten next Tuesday or Wednesday on the anti-treaty motion and then resign, what is to become of the Irish boundary commission, which will not have passed all the stages toward enactment, but the opinion is general that all the parties will allow the measure to go through as soon as parliamentary procedure permits.

SAY EXPLANATION UNSATISFACTORY

CABINET SYMPATHIZERS NOT IMPRESSED WITH REMARKS

Withdrawal of Prosecution Against Communist Newspaper Writer Causes Keen Criticism

LONDON, Oct. 2.—Critics who are not disposed usually to be harsh on the present ministry do not hesitate to describe the explanation given in the House of Commons on Tuesday by Sir Patrick Hastings, Attorney-General, for the dropping of the prosecution of J. R. Campbell, editor of the Workers' Weekly, on a charge of sedition as entirely unsatisfactory.

Whether the Government influenced the law officers in the dropping of the charge against Campbell or not, there is a general impression that the whole matter was, at best, badly bungled.

The matter of the withdrawal of the charge will be debated in the Commons next week.

John Rose Campbell was charged with sedition in attempting in an article in the paper to seduce from allegiance members of His Majesty's forces by urging soldiers, airmen and sailors to form committees as a nucleus of an organization for a common attack upon capitalists, and suggested shooting down their "oppressors" instead of their fellow-workers in connection with industrial disputes.

Propose to Clean Up Vancouver
Police Commissioners Decide to Stop Gambling in Chinatown Following Recent Murder

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—Gambling must be stopped in Chinatown; selling of narcotics must cease; long activities must be curbed so that all fear of racketeering and life and limb will be removed; sale of liquor in chop suey houses and blind-pigs must be suppressed and the civic by-laws must be rigorously enforced, according to orders issued by the police officials by the police commission today.

"Conditions culminating in the assassination of David Lew last week have become intolerable in the Chinese quarter," declared Mayor W. R. Owen. "There has got to be a clean-up—a real one. I do not intend to be satisfied with half-measures."

The mayor said it was no secret that liquor could be purchased in some chop suey houses; and that the traffic in narcotics in Chinatown had been an abomination for years and must stop.

Gambling Rife
"Gambling is rife and the murder of last week is said to have resulted from jealousies and strifes arising from factions in the gambling houses. Whether this is or not, it is fully determined, but this we know, that on the night of his death Mr. Lew was killed while he was in the act of giving the police information in connection with a fracas which was said to have its origin in gaming house war."

The two other commissioners, Alderman P. C. Gibbons and Robert MacPherson, nodded their heads in agreement when the mayor declared he would like Chief H. W. Long to understand he had a free hand to go the limit in putting an end to gambling among the Orientals.

"We want you to clean everything up," said Mr. MacPherson. "I want you to co-operate with the police of the other municipalities and I want to see more co-operation between your own departments."

Mr. MacPherson inquired if any further action had been taken to bring to justice the operators of the B. C. Veterans' Weekly competition. Inspector Jackson said it was difficult to get direct evidence of conspiracy to defraud, but said that the case would be followed up.

OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—Nine thousand patents were granted in Canada last year. According to the annual report of the Commissioner of Patents, this was about an average for the past five years, but 24 per cent less than last year. There were 16,441 applications filed.

DECLARES CANADA'S LOYALTY TO LEAGUE

SENATOR DANDURAND ADDRESSES ASSEMBLY

Expresses Regret at United States' Absence, But Stresses Century of Peace in North America

GENEVA, Oct. 2.—The Hon. Raoul Dandurand, Canadian representative at the assembly of the League of Nations, speaking before the assembly today, declared Canada would be loyal to the covenant of the league and would support the protocol of arbitration and security. His speech was a noteworthy contribution to the debate which preceded the unanimous adoption by the assembly of a resolution urging that all governments ratify the protocol.

Senator Dandurand said that when Canada subscribed to the covenant she was far from the thought that she would have the entire burden of representing North America when an appeal came for assistance in maintaining peace in Europe.

"The falling away of the United States," he said, "has increased in our eyes the risks we have assumed, and the history of Europe during the last five years has not been such as to lessen that apprehension."

Senator Dandurand pointed to the century-old peaceful relations between Canada and the United States as a demonstration of the way in which international disputes of the type claimed by one party to be purely of domestic jurisdiction can be successfully settled. He referred to the manner in which a permanent joint commission had for more than ten years solved all matters at issue between the two countries.

SHOULD NOT ACCEPT GENEVA PROPOSAL

FORMER AUSTRALIAN PREMIER OPPOSES COMPROMISE

Declares Orientals Are Determined to Include Immigration Problems in League of Nations Rules

MELBOURNE, Oct. 2.—William Hughes, former Premier of Australia, commenting yesterday on the outcome of the Japanese objections to the arbitration protocol at Geneva and the subsequent settlement of the difficulty raised by Japan in the matter, said Australia should not accept the compromise entered into at Geneva. He declared that it was his opinion that the Japanese were determined to bring under the League of Nations rules any dispute regarding immigration aimed against Japan.

Premier Bruce declined to comment on the matter, but promised a statement later.

The Melbourne Herald says Australia is not prepared to leave her fate in the matter of being a "white" country to foreign control, and unless the agreement arrived at means that Japan has abrogated her demand in the matter of the arbitration protocol, Australia cannot sign the document.

The Evening Sun says: "We no longer are a free people if the deputy of the League of Nations can say whether we are allowed to keep Australia white. Australia has nothing to thank Great Britain for if the British delegates' desertion at Geneva is a poor requital for Australia's priceless service in Britain's hour of need."

President Latham of the League of Nations Union, asserts that the compromise with Japan at Geneva is dangerous from every point of view, and opens up serious possibilities of trouble in the future.

Canada's Gentlemen's Agreement
OTTAWA, Oct. 2.—With the problem of Japanese immigration to the front at the League of Nations assembly, Canadian interest in the issue raised by Japan is heightened by negotiations between the Canadian and Japanese Governments in regard to the interpretation of the "gentlemen's agreement," which regulates at present the immigration of domestic servants and laborers to Canada, but certain classes of Japanese in addition are permitted to enter. These include Government representatives, merchants, students and the wives and children of Japanese citizens already resident in Canada.

It is the regulation of the immigration of Japanese residents which has led to the renewal of negotiations with Japan. The matter came up at the close of the session and British Columbia members expressed doubt of the sufficiency of the protection accorded by the "gentlemen's agreement."

A question was raised whether the quota of 150 included contract laborers, but Premier King replied that the Government had not given its consent to the interpretation of that class of labor and did not intend to do so. He agreed, however, that there was a "loophole" in the agreement in regard to the wives of those Japanese already in the country, and he announced that the Government was taking that matter up with the Japanese authorities. No official statement is available here as to the result of these negotiations, but it is not regarded as unlikely that the Premier will receive representations on the subject when he reaches British Columbia on his present tour.

Open Verdict Returned
LETHBRIDGE, Oct. 2.—An open verdict was returned by the coroner's jury at the inquest into the death of Mark Rogers, local oil man, who was found dead in his home Tuesday morning with the top of his head blown off by a shotgun. The jury admitted inability to decide whether the shooting was accidental or intentional. The contents of the note left by Mr. Rogers to his wife was not divulged to the public but was read by the juryman.

Domestic Heroines in Our Homes

Women who lead a domestic life are to listen to every call of duty excepting the supreme one that tells them to guard their health. As long as they can drag themselves around women continue to work. Necessity to keep on their feet all day when over-tired, or sitting in cramped positions day in and day out often brings on ailments from which women suffer tortures. For fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been strengthening women and overcoming such ailments. Sickness and pain vanish under its influence and thousands of women have been benefited by it. (Adv.)

DR. SHEARER WILL SPEAK IN VICTORIA

General Secretary of Social Service Council Has Distinguished Career—Called Leader of Men

Dr. J. G. Shearer, general secretary of the Social Service Council of Canada, who will be one of the speakers at the Social Welfare Congress to be held in Victoria on October 13 and 14, was trained in Toronto University and Knox College, Toronto, graduating in 1888. He subsequently held pastorates in Canada and Hamilton, in addition to which responsibilities he took a great part in the war against the social evil and in the organization of the church for constructive social work.

Dr. Shearer has been cited as the outstanding representative in the Presbyterian Church of a national movement toward righteousness and of the spirit that interprets Christianity by service along modern social lines. In 1907 he became secretary of the newly formed Presbyterian Board of Social Service. The activities of this board, at first narrow in scope, extended to an oversight of degree under the power of Dr. Shearer's great organizing ability.

Finally Dr. Shearer brought together representatives of other denominations and after considerable discussion the Social Service Council was organized in order that the churches might carry on a common and with greatly increased strength, many of their activities in the realm of social service.

This organization has since developed into the great Social Service Council of Canada, composed of thirty organizations federated for the furtherance of common aims. Since its beginning Dr. Shearer has been its general secretary and is chiefly responsible for its unique development.

Dr. George Pidgeon, of Toronto, says of him: "Dr. Shearer has been a leader in a band of men who believed strongly enough in God and humanity to hold that, when the right cause is at stake, they must maintain the people as a whole would support it. The entire life of the country is cleaner and stronger because of their efforts. When he entered the service of the Church the new social movement was just beginning to grip the Christian imagination. He interpreted it to the Church and guided our people in their efforts. The whole country knows his tremendous driving force and his genius for organization. But those closest to him know him as the most loyal of friends and most devoted of Christian ministers, simple in his faith, and intense in his love of Jesus Christ. He has lived and fought his faith through as far as he could see its requirements and he is today a greater power for good than ever."

National Safety Council of United States Reveals Report—84,000 Fatal Accidents Per Year

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 2.—Eighty-four thousand lives were lost in the United States last year as the result of accidents. The death toll amounted to 1,462 per week, or 209 a day. Automobile accidents headed the list with 37 deaths a day. Falls killed 35 a day; drownings, 19, and railroad accidents, 18.

These figures, supplied by Louis Duggin, New York, chairman of the committee on public accident statistics, National Safety Council, in his report to that body at its annual congress here, shows that the annual cost of traffic accidents vary from $15 to $30 per capita, he said.

The children died in hospital some hours after the fire which broke out yesterday morning.

END OF BOAK TRIAL IS NOW IN SIGHT

Juryman Not on Duty in the Case Are Ordered to Report on Tuesday Morning

With the end of the Dr. Boak trial now well in sight, the assizes will proceed for the remaining cases set down for the present sitting next Tuesday. With this in view the remaining juryman that had not been called in the Boak trial and who have been excused from attendance at the court until this morning were yesterday given a further release from attendance until Tuesday morning next at 10 o'clock.

By that time it is expected that the Boak case will be out of the way and the other indictments may be proceeded with.

It was decided by Mr. Justice Murphy that the witnesses for the crown that had all been examined in the Boak trial should be released from attendance each day at court. His lordship felt that there was no necessity for the continued expense of having them in attendance at court.

RESUME INQUIRY ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10

Counsel for Chief Brogan and Mr. Owen Lloyd to Address Commission Before Decision Given

The next session of the inquiry which the Saanich Police Commission is conducting into charges against Chief of Police Peter Brogan will be held on Friday evening, October 10, at 8 o'clock, at the Municipal Hall, Royal Oak. Reeve Robert Macdonald, chairman of the Commission, announced yesterday. This forthcoming meeting may prove to be the final setting of the investigation.

No meeting of the Saanich Police Commission has been called since Monday, September 8, on account of the indisposition of Police Commissioner P. W. Dempster, who was unable to be present at the last meeting. A transcript of the evidence taken at the last meeting was ordered to be sent to Commissioner Dempster for his perusal.

With Commissioner Dempster recovered from his illness sufficiently to attend a Commission meeting, the Saanich Police Commission will resume its investigation into the charges levelled against the head of the Saanich police one week from tomorrow night. The Commission has held three meetings in connection with the inquiry, and has heard evidence given in support of the accusations which Messrs. Owen Lloyd and D. Pailletiere have levelled against Chief Brogan, as well as evidence of Chief Brogan. At the next session of the inquiry, on Friday, October 10, Mr. J. B. Brandon and Mr. Herbert Davey, counsel for Chief Brogan and Mr. Owen Lloyd, respectively, will have the opportunity of addressing the Commission and making pleas on behalf of their respective clients. The Commission will then give its decision in the investigation.

LOCAL MAN DIES IN TRAIN MISHAP

FREDERICK ROBERTS LEWIS
KILLED IN ONTARIO

Won Popularity Here as Student and Athlete—Well-Known in Educational Circles

Victim of a train accident, Mr. Frederick Roberts Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lewis, 1410 Harrison Street, was instantly killed near Ignace, Ontario, on Tuesday, according to word received by his family here.

The late Mr. Lewis was well known in both educational and athletic circles here, where the quiet charm of his personality won for him a widespread popularity.

He was born in Belleville, Ontario, in 1899, and came West with his parents when a child. His early education was received in the graded schools of Vancouver, where the family lived until 1916, the year in which they left the Mainland city for Victoria.

Shortly after coming to this city Mr. Lewis renounced his studies at the High School, entering the returned soldiers' class which was formed after the Summer of 1919. Matriculating, he left the High School for the Victoria College, from which he graduated over a year ago.

As an earnest, conscientious student, affable, straightforward and unaffected, he was a favorite of professor and classmate alike. He was in constant demand as an athlete. His sobriquet "Big Fred" was significant of the affection of his fellow students as well as of their admiration for his prowess at basketball and rugby.

Mr. Lewis was principal of a school at Hope for the past school term. Last Summer he left for the East with the intention of attending Queen's University where, during the last four years, his brother, Arthur, earned the distinction of being one of the greatest football players in Canada.

In addition to his parents and his brother, Mr. Lewis' two sisters, Mary and Ella, live in the Harrison Street home of the family. An uncle, Mr. F. G. Lewis, lives in Vancouver. His remains will reach the city on Tuesday when funeral arrangements will be made.

Witnesses deny
DEFENCE FRAMED

thing. He did not at that time know that anyone had been killed.

He saw water coming from the radiator. He did not see it come from the tap. He believed that he started the engine and then desisted. Dr. Boak was the first one he heard make reference to a shadow having turned his course. Dr. Boak had been asked how he came to cut across. Dr. Boak said he did it because two shadows passed in front of him and he came over to avoid them.

To the court the witness said he could not recollect anything being said as to the character of the shadow.

On the road around the corner he saw what he took to be two people. He did not know of anyone of the party going back north of the Duck car to look for anything.

Laughed Over Accident
The witness admitted the party had been laughing on the railway tracks after the accident. He believed Dr. Duck suggested putting out the lights and keeping quiet. There was a light or lights on Dr. Boak's car when he first went down there.

While Dr. Boak was phoning, a passing car asked if they were all right and was informed they were. The witness went to the hospital that night. He believed they were there only a short time. It did not seem an hour to him. Dr. Duck was there as well as Dr. Boak. It was said they would likely have to appear in the police court.

Asked by Mr. Maclean if the suggestion was correct that they were making up a falsehood there to tell the court, the witness denied it emphatically.

Dr. Charles W. Duck had left Dr. Fraser's about 9 or 9:15. He had Messrs. Turpell and Higgin with him. Dr. Boak passed him on the East Saanich Road. Near Royal Oak Dr. Boak slowed down and the witness passed him. He next saw Dr. Boak when he was opposite to him on the left hand side at the scene of the accident.

He saw nothing ahead or to his side.

Suddenly Dr. Boak swerved in front of him. He swerved also to escape collision, and his car came to rest on the side of the road. He supposed it was about eight feet from the road. No one was hurt in his car and he ran on to the road but could see no one. He came back and followed the track left by Dr. Boak's car. He went down and found that car on the railway embankment. No one was hurt.

After stopping at Dr. Boak's car while the party went back to Dr. Duck's car. A little later Dr. Boak went to telephone for a service car. There was then no knowledge of anyone having been hurt. He looked at his watch a little later and found the time to be 10:15.

After Dr. Boak came back they went to the railway tracks and were there when Mr. William Davies arrived. The latter looked at the Boak car and then went up to the car of the witness. The service car had come along and the light of it illuminated the bodies.

When Dr. Boak passed him his car was not on the east side of the road. He was in the centre of the road. Any tracks on the east side of the road were not his. He had had his rear lights and number plate broken off at Dr. Fraser's home.

Did Not Block
At the Prairie Hotel, where Dr. Boak passed him, he was going about twenty-five to thirty miles. He did not keep up a speed of twenty-five miles all the way in. Sometimes Dr. Boak's car was out of sight.

When he passed Dr. Boak near Royal Oak, he was going at 20, 25 or perhaps 20 miles.

He never tried to prevent Dr. Boak passing him at any time. When he swerved the Boak car was right in front of him. His move was to get out of the road. He positively asserted he was not on the wrong side of the road.

To the court, the witness said he was going about 20 miles an hour

when he turned off. He said his car did not leap across the ditch without touching the ground.

He was sure no one went back to look for anyone. Dr. Boak had told him he saw a shadow, and that was why he turned. He did not ask him where he saw the shadow.

"Why go back to look for shadow when you're in the ditch?" said the witness.

He had told Dr. Boak to turn the lights off because they did not want a crowd around. They did not want to be laughed at.

To the court, he said he did not hear Dr. Boak's horn. He was surprised to see him alongside of him. Dr. Boak's car might have "tipped his" by touching the mud guards.

He did not see two men near the greenhouse. He did not see any men there. He had seen someone farther back.

He denied there was a nervous breakdown at the time. They were in laughing mood, he said.

Mysterious Car
Mr. F. Findlay, of the B.C. Electric Company, had stopped his car on the night of the accident at the old Saanich Road. There was a car on the left side pointing towards the city and about fifteen yards ahead. The driver of this machine asked for a match. The witness asked him if he wanted any assistance. He said "No." He seemed agitated and said "No, no, no." That would be at 9:35. He appeared to be rubbing the front of his car. The witness had got home at 9:15. From his talk the man was undoubtedly an American.

When the witness passed the scene of the accident he saw no cars. Cross-examined, the witness said he thought he could tell an American. The manner of the man indicated that he was agitated. He would not say his actions were extraordinary, but they were unusual.

To the court, he said that this car was on the old Saanich Road, going away from Victoria. The man, when he first picked him up, appeared to be rubbing the front of his car.

Mr. R. Williams had been at the scene on Saturday. He found a piece of paper just behind a stone post near the Ellis Road. He found a piece of white cloth near there also. He found these about 10:30 or 11 o'clock.

One of the jurymen asked if the witness had been in court all the time.

The witness said he had.

Another jurymen said the man had attempted to get into the jury room. Turning on him, His Lordship demanded whether this was true.

The witness explained he had gone there in mistake and had not spoken to any jurymen.

To a member of the jury the witness said the paper could not be seen from the road.

To the court he said he went out to assist Dr. Boak.

Marks on Road
Mr. W. Johnson, commercial traveler, dealing in automobile tires, had been at the scene about 8:40 on the morning following the accident. He saw the tracks of Dr. Boak's car across the pavement. The imprint of the tires was distinct and showed the pattern. This held true practically along the full course. The left wheel mark was more distinct than the other. There was no indication of the application of brakes as would be indicated by blurring of the pattern.

Mr. J. J. Jensen, of the Bank of Montreal, had come over the road in a car with four others. The car stalled at 9:40. Others looked at their watch and confirmed the time. This was 24 paces north of where the bodies were picked up.

They saw nothing as they passed. He thought if a car had been on the side of the road some of the party would have seen it.

Mr. Maclean objected to the statement that twenty or more cars passed the Duck car that night and did not see it.

Mr. Jackson altered his remark to five or six cars.

"Quite a discount," interjected Mr. Maclean.

The witness, in reply to Mr. Maclean, said he had on August 26 gone voluntarily to Mr. Maclean and given him this information.

Forked-tailed monkeys, said to inhabit the mountain fastnesses of China, are being sought by scientists.

MOSLEM AND HINDU MAKE CONCESSIONS

Indian Religious Unity Conference Makes Plea for Either Side to Use Discretion

DELHI, British India, Oct. 2.—The religious unity conference, which began here last week, has resulted in a plea to the Moslems to recognize the Hindu right to play music before or in close proximity to mosques, and just as the Hindus left the question of cow slaughter to the good sense of the Moslems, the latter are urged to leave the matter of music playing to the good sense of the Hindus. The Moslems pledge themselves not to force the Hindus to abandon their religious rights. A resolution on the dispute between the Moslems and Sikhs over the manner of killing animals for meat permits such slaughter in all manner.

The conference established a central arbitration board of fifteen members, with Mr. Ghaffar as chairman, to settle the communal disputes of all communities represented on boards.

and vehicle parts, will enter under the intermediate tariff. The proposed British preferential rates under machinery compare with ten per cent under the present rates. Certain classes of printing paper also will be free, compared with the present rate of 13 a ton. Gloves, textile only, will be subject to ten per cent ad valorem, compared with the present rate of 25 per cent.

Regarding the other side of the agreement, Canada will grant Australia the British preference on fresh meat, canned meat, lard, tallow, eggs, butter, cheese, onions, raisins, currants, dried fruits not otherwise provided for, canned fruit and vegetables, plus, gelatinous, peas, quinces, apricots, nectarines, honey and eucalyptus oil.

Canada will amend the tariff on these items so as to increase the preference. Australia will also get the same rate as France regarding wines and brandies.

Speaks for British Columbia

CONTINUING MILK SUPPLY IN SCHOOLS

Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., is appealing through Tag Day Tomorrow for funds.

When the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., milk fund was founded some two or three years ago there were some who withheld their approval of the undertaking on the grounds that it was a measure leading toward the pauperization of school children who were to benefit by the undertaking. One principal, who had expressed opposition to the scheme, voluntarily came before the chapter at one of its meetings at the close of the school term, admitted having made a mistake and asked if the funds would not permit the continuance of the milk supply during the summer months to some of the more under-nourished.

This is a sample of the evidence which is available in favor of the continuance of the work. The chapter is holding a tag day tomorrow in aid of its milk fund and hopes that Victoria will support the project liberally.

St. Margaret's Girls Secure Certificates For Swimming Skill

Yesterday the Victoria representative of the Royal Life Saving Society, Mr. John D. McNeill, assisted by Miss Grace Wellburn, held examinations for certificates of the society. The object of such examinations is to promote a thorough knowledge of scientific methods of saving life in cases of near-drowning, knowledge which is essential in a seagirt city like this. There are different grades of proficiency recognised by different awards. For an elementary certificate, a candidate must show, in the water, two methods of rescuing a drowning person and one method of release from the clutches of such. For the proficiency certificate, one must show four methods of rescue, whilst for the bronze medal, all the methods of release and rescue must be shown, as well as the Schuster method of resuscitation. This last is a test of great endurance and skill, for which both accuracy and strength are needed.

Such a course was held by Miss Cummins for girls at St. Margaret's School this year. The examinations were held this week. Twelve girls entered for the different tests and all of them were successful in gaining the award for which they aimed. The results were as follows:

Mother Finds Rattlesnake in Her Baby's Crib

THE DALLES, Ore., Oct. 2.—When Mrs. C. H. Doyle, who lives in the Mill Creek valley, near The Dalles, went to her baby's crib to find out what was making him cry this morning she put her hand on the rattlers of a three-foot rattlesnake, which was coiled under the covers beside the child. She snatched the baby from danger before the snake, apparently made sluggish by the cold weather, could strike, and called for help. A neighbor responded and dragged the crib into the yard, where the snake slipped from beneath the tiny bedclothes and escaped under the house.

WELL-KNOWN COUPLE UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Miss Nellie Walls Becomes Bride of Mr. Maria Hale—Reception at Home of Bride

St. John's Church was the scene of a quiet wedding yesterday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, when the Rev. M. W. J. Bruce solemnized the marriage of Ellen Louise (Nellie), eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Walls, 657 Superior Street, and of Mr. Maria Hale, only son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hale, formerly of Duncan, B.C., and London, England.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was handsomely gowned in white satin fashioned with a low waist line and trimmed at one side with ostrich tips and fringe. She wore a white hat trimmed with an ostrich plume, and carried Opheila roses and maidenhair fern.

Miss Lena Walls attended her sister in a charming gown of apricot satin with which she wore a silver and apricot picture hat, and carried a sheaf of cream gladioli. Little Miss Daphne Hale acted as flower girl in a dainty frock of shell pink georgette. She wore a gold band in her hair and carried a pretty basket of flowers. The groom was supported by Lieutenant Maurice Wood, R.C.N.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, the rooms for the occasion having been artistically decorated by Mrs. F. M. Rattenbury, aunt of the bride.

In the drawing room the bride and groom, standing under a floral arch decorated with pink and white wedding bells, received the congratulations and best wishes of the guests. Mrs. Walls, mother of the bride, gowned in an apricot and white, wearing a diamond and ruby ring to the bride's maid, a leather and gold traveling bag, and to the best man a sealed envelope. The bride's gift to the groom was a pearl tie pin.

For traveling, Mrs. Hale wore a grey georgette gown, squirrel coat and grey hat. Mr. and Mrs. Hale left for Sidney en route for Anacortes, from where they will motor to Los Angeles and Mexico. After an absence of about six weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Hale will make their home at 1117 McClure Street.

EXCHEQUER COURT FORMALLY ADJOURNS

Judgment Was Reserved in Four Cases Heard and Fifth Trial Is Held Over

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—Conclusion of the sitting of the Exchequer Court, which has been in session here since September 22, was reached on Wednesday evening when Mr. Justice MacLean formally adjourned.

During the sitting five cases have been dealt with, judgments being reserved in four instances, while the fifth involving arbitration in connection with the Sinclair Hot Springs on the Hanft-Windermere Road, will be dealt with on the spot, the court and counsel journeying to Sinclair Creek for that purpose.

An appeal by the Harbor Navigation Company from a judgment of Mr. Justice Martin dismissing its claim against the Dutch motorship Dinteldyk for damages sustained by the Enliada, a launch owned by the company, was heard, judgment being reserved, as was the case in the appeal by the motorship Pacific against a judgment awarding the Winslow Marine Shipbuilding Company $5,000 for repairs to that vessel.

Judgment will also be handed down in the appeal of the Canadian Pacific Railway versus Camosun against a judgment in favor of the vessel for damages arising out of a collision between the Camosun and the steamship Princess Beatrice in 1923.

MARRIAGE IN ENGLAND OF INTEREST HERE

Daughter of Late Sir Henry and Lady May Principal in Fashionable Ceremony

Details of a wedding of considerable local interest are contained in a recent edition of The East Anglian Daily Times, England, which reports the marriage on Tuesday, September 9, of Miss Iris Olivia Helena May, daughter of the late Sir Henry May and Lady May, to Mr. Edward Hamilton Johnston. Until about six years ago, when they finally went to England to make their home there permanently, Sir Henry and Lady May and their family frequently came here from China for long or short periods, and the last time they remained for nearly two years, spending their time between Cowichan and Victoria, and making many friends in both places. Miss Iris May, whose marriage has just taken place, was with her parents on these occasions, and is also well-known here.

The East Anglian Times reports the ceremony as follows:

"Members of the bride's family have lived at Clare for many years, and have been actively identified with social life in the little town. Her maternal grandfather was the late General Sir Geo. Digby Barker, of Crimmet and Mutfin fame, and on the retirement of her father from the Governorship of Hong Kong, the family came to live in The Priory, Lady May, since the death of Sir Henry, has maintained her interest in the parochial life of Clare, and is the president of all the societies which deal with the social life and welfare of the parish. In this work she has been well seconded by the bride, who has become very popular. She has been actively identified with the work of the young, and was one of the founders of the troop of Boy Scouts and Cubs and company of Girl Guides

Sunlight—for your Washing Machine

A WASHING machine is made to wash your clothes without rubbing or boiling—and it succeeds just in proportion to the value of the soap you use.

Sunlight Soap dissolves quickly and completely in hot water and works up into an abundant suds. This is very necessary so that its rich cleansing ingredients may search through and dissolve the meshes of the clothes and dissolve the dirt and soil spots. Then, when rinsing comes, all dirt and soapy matter runs entirely away, leaving your clothes sweet, fresh and snowy clean.

Put half a cake of Sunlight into hot water in your machine and stir into generous suds. Put in the clothes and operate the machine—your clothes will be clean.

LEVER BROTHERS LIMITED
TORONTO

The pure lather of Sunlight Soap causes the clothes naturally to be chemically. The $5,000 Guarantee of Purity is stamped on every tablet of Sunlight Soap.

HENRY VIII'S WIVES
GIVE LECTURE THEME

Mrs. Adams Beck's Series Will Begin on October 12, Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E. Announced Last Night

The polygamist habits of King Henry the Eighth have furnished Mrs. Adams Beck with a subject for the lecture series which she has undertaken to give at the New Thought Temple under the auspices of Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E. Announcement was made at the regular monthly meeting of the Chapter last evening that she would give the first of her lectures on Monday, October 12, having selected Catherine of Aragon as the first of the monarch's consorts for discussion under the series of "Wives of Henry VIII."

Wednesday's meeting, which was held in the home of the regent, Mrs. Andrew Wright, decided to give one-half of the proceeds of their Hallways dance to the Victorian Order of Nurses, the other half to the Chapter's general funds. The sum of $5 was voted to the Victoria War Memorial Fund and $10 to the Chapter's participation in the I.O.D.E. secondary education work. It was decided to help the Navy League Chapter with their tag day.

A rummage sale is being held by the Chapter on Saturday, at 1815 Douglas Street. Mrs. Walker being appointed general convener.

Before adjourning the members gave a standing vote of sympathy to Mrs. Luxton in her recent bereavement.

The Marriage Handicap

By RUBY AYRES

The story thus far: A man of affairs, married a country mouse of a girl and soon repented of the bargain. Rachel's nature shrank from the habits of his London friends, and soon he installed her in a country house and pursued his own life, going home only for week-ends. On one of his visits he found an anonymous letter waiting him. "It is a dangerous thing for a man to neglect a young and attractive wife," although he despised such a method of conveying a warning. He knew his wife had few friends, and he made most of her time with her sister Isabel, who lives close by. The letter, which Isabel had read, told of an elderly bachelor, who lives close by, who has a note to this effect—and present Mrs. Martin, discover the worst of her husband's conduct. He demands the truth from her on her return, and she offers no explanation. A quarrel ensues. Overcome with distress, Rachel makes out into the night. She encounters the same man, a sympathetic friend, and he persuades her to return home. Martin believes her to be the cause of the anonymous note, and he returns to London without his wife. He sees his cousin Constance, who has always been in love with him, and confides in her. Rachel visits London and meets her husband again. She confesses that she wants to win back her husband's love by making him jealous, and she promises to help her. Together they decide to help her. Together they decide to help her. Together they decide to help her.

CHAPTER XLVIII.

Todd Done His Best

She would not have been quite so comfortable if she had seen Mr. Todd presenting himself to her. Martin Hackworth's office the following morning. The two men eyed each other silently when the visitor was ushered in and it was Martin who reluctantly held out his hand.

"I only shake hands with friends," said Mr. Todd, in his blunt way. "If I may count you a friend—"

Hackworth flushed.

"Well, sit down, anyway," he said. He pulled forward a chair.

Mr. Todd deposited his umbrella on the table, took off his hat and looked steadily at Martin.

"I'm not a diplomat," he began uncomplainingly. "So I'll cut the rackets and come to the horses. I'm here about your wife."

Hackworth had remained standing. He looked very tall and unapproachable.

"I quite fail to see," he began coldly, "what business it is of yours to interfere in my private affairs."

"My affection for your wife and my wish to be a friend to you gives me the right," Stephen said earnestly. "I don't know what evil hand it is that has put her in her life and yours, but I'm going to find out. Rachel is the best little girl in the world, and if you do this—this unbecomable thing which I understand you are contemplating, you will regret it all your life."

Martin moved stiffly.

"She has given me no option—"

"No option!" said Mr. Todd fiercely. "I'm willing to stake my hopes of everlasting salvation on her absolute innocence, even though she is living in a house that I'd like to see raided by the police, and in the care of a woman who is no better than a crook, living on the credulity of fools."

Martin's lips moved, but no words came, and Mr. Todd went on:

"I had the pleasure of spending an evening in Mrs. Gainsford's house last night—the thumped the table with his fist. 'Have you ever been there, may I ask?'"

"No, but—"

"Go, then, my dear sir! Go and see for yourself what sort of a place you have driven your wife to accept for a home. Beyond that boy Freeman, I doubt if a decent man or woman ever visits it, and he only goes for your wife's sake."

"You are honest enough to admit that, then?" Hackworth asked.

"Honest enough to recognize that the boy has a very true and sincere friendship for your wife," Mr. Todd maintained stoutly. "I know him, and I know her, and I say—"

"They have offered no defense," Martin said harshly.

"Come, my dear boy, I'm only guilty of what you are guilty of. It's only guilty folk who defend and defend themselves to the end of time and eternity," Stephen said contemptuously.

"Come, my dear boy, I might have had a son like you if I had not married my life up as you are trying to mean yours now. Listen to an old man's interfering old fool. If you like, but one who has your welfare as well as your wife's at heart. What grounds are you going on? What proofs? Just a vulgar anonymous letter—"

"No!"

"What, then? The fact that they once lost the last train? What harm is there in that? Have you never lost last train yourself?"

Martin Hackworth rose to his feet; he was white to the lips and his voice shook when he spoke.

"I have listened to you with great patience and tolerance, but I can do so no longer. Will you kindly get out of my office."

Mr. Todd rose. He grasped his umbrella firmly. He was conscious of bitter disappointment and a crushing defeat.

He had done Rachel no good, probably he had made matters worse, but he made a last valiant effort.

"Hackworth, if she is willing to meet you—as a last hope of reconciliation, will you meet her?"

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

Sees No Necessity to Cancel World's Series

Commissioner Landis, Dictator of Baseball, Declares That There Is No Reason for Such a Step—Attempted Bribery Charge Proved and Guilty Punished—O'Connell Reiterates Statement That Giants Are All in on It

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The 1924 world's series will go on, notwithstanding that baseball was shaken to its foundations today by a whirlwind succession of developments growing out of the attempt of Jimmy O'Connell, young New York outfielder, to bribe Heinie Sand, Philadelphia shortstop, in the game that decided the National League pennant race for the Giants. This was the declaration tonight by Kenesaw Mountain Landis, High Commissioner of Baseball. It was made after a hectic day, during which fresh charges were flung by O'Connell, who had been banished for all time from the game, together with Casey Dolan, Giant coach, accused of instigating the bribery plot, and during which prominent baseball officials, including President Ban Johnson, of the American League, and President Barney Dreyfus, of the Pittsburgh club, asserted the series should be called off as a result of the scandal.

Landis Is Unmoved

Unmoved, apparently, by the day's developments, and declining to amplify the statement he issued in New York last night regarding the plot and debarment of Dolan and O'Connell, the commissioner declared he saw no prospect of developments that would prevent the start of the championship battle Saturday between Washington's first pennant winner and the Giants.

Furthermore, the commissioner indicated he had no new evidence calculated to widen the scope of the attempted bribery deal, a possibility brought to the fore today by O'Connell's reiteration that the Giants "were all in on it" and by the specific mention of three veterans, George Kelly, Frank Frisch and Ross Young.

"So far as I am concerned, no cloud now hangs over any member of the Giant team eligible to play in the world's series," the commissioner declared.

"They will go into the world's series with the Senators on Saturday."

"There was a clear case of bribery; it proved active; the guilty men have been punished. Why call off the series?"

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—As preparations were being made to receive baseball, prodigal son of the nation, into the hearts of the people, a new scandal has been revealed whose ultimate effect cannot now be estimated.

Commissioner Landis, who announced last night that Jimmy O'Connell and Casey Dolan, of the Giants, had been declared ineligible, for attempted bribery, will continue his investigation in Washington today in an effort to discover who put the $500 into the hands of the substitute outfielder, who originated the scheme now credited to Dolan, and to what extent it was practiced during the season.

Heinie Sand, Philadelphia shortstop, known as the hero in baseball's latest family tragedy. The commissioner acted upon information furnished by Sand, who charged that O'Connell had offered to him $500 to "throw the game" between the Giants and Phillies on September 27.

New York won the contest 5-1 and clinched the pennant. O'Connell, called before the commissioner, President Heydler of the National League, and John McGraw, manager of the Giants, confessed to offering the bribe and implicated Casey Dolan, coach of the team; Captain Frank Frisch, George Kelly and Ross Young, the latter trio composing the backbone of the team.

Completely Absolved. Frisch, Kelly and Young are completely absolved by the commissioner following a hearing, but Dolan, whose testimony in favor of himself was of such a character as to be unacceptable, the commissioner said, was blamed as the man who instigated the plot.

Immediately after announcing the story to the Associated Press the New York Commissioner Landis left for Washington to take over supervision of details for the world series, which is now expected to be played in an atmosphere where drama can only be guessed.

The newest blow to baseball has landed most heavily on the Pacific coast.

JOHNSON DEMANDS FEDERAL INQUIRY

CHICAGO, Oct. 2.—Federal investigation to rid baseball of its alleged crookedness will be demanded by President Ban Johnson, of the American League, as a result of the scandal involving Jimmy O'Connell, Giant outfielder, expelled from the game after confessing that he had offered a $500 bribe to Heinie Sand, Philadelphia infielder, to throw last Saturday's game.

Casey Dolan, Giant coach, also was expelled as a result of the Giant outfielder's confession.

"President Johnson, declaring that baseball is the national game, and tonight that it must be protected by the Government, and the present situation indicated a course of 'cover-up,' which, he said, the American League would not condone, nor accept."

"I will insist upon an investigation by the federal jury, so that we may know all the facts and bring to the surface the individuals who have been guilty of this great misconduct and are now posing as the integrity of baseball," President Johnson said.

EXCITEMENT HIGH IN U.S. CAPITAL

BASEBALL FANS POURING INTO WASHINGTON

President Coolidge Catches the Fever—Will Toss First Ball in the World's Baseball Series

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The thermometer of excitement in Washington bubbled only a few degrees below the bursting point tonight. The unexpected charges of bribery by two members of the New York Giants added more kindling to an already excited city, and the national capital was prepared for almost anything after passing through a day in which rumor ran rife.

However, despite the hubbub, arrangements were carried forward for the opening Saturday of the world's series between the Senators and Giants.

Throughout the day fans from all parts of the country began to pour into the city. Judge Landis, who was expected to arrive Saturday, arrived tonight and added all that was needed to make Washington the center of the baseball world.

The stadium at Griffith Park will have a seating capacity of 37,000, but despite the addition of the temporary seats, it is expected the actual playing field will be the largest of the world's championship "ever" fought out. The Washington ball club took a snappy workout in the afternoon. Manager Harris was very difficult to clear several dozen cameramen from the field and the two teams practiced for nearly two hours.

Final Workout. The Washington plot announced he had ordered his team in uniform for a morning workout tomorrow, so that the field would be cleared over to the Giants in the afternoon.

President Coolidge, who led in the welcome home celebration for the team, again showed that he could not quite keep his mind altogether on the Government's business by contributing to a fund that is being raised for a testimonial to be presented to Walter Johnson just before he starts to pitch the opening game.

The President also let it be known that he expected to toss the first ball in the series. The local golf tournaments scheduled for Saturday have been cancelled.

The draw and other details will be announced in Sunday's issue of The Colonist.

Saturday's League Games

The following are the English League games to be played today in this week-end:
Aston Villa vs. Blackburn Rovers.
Aston Villa vs. Huddersfield Town.
Barnsley vs. Bolton Wanderers.
Bury vs. Sheffield United.
Cardiff City vs. Bolton Wanderers.
Everton vs. Liverpool.
Leeds United vs. Birmingham.
Manchester City vs. West Ham U.
Nottingham Forest vs. Newcastle U.
Preston North End vs. Tottenham.
Sunderland vs. Notts County.

Important Meetings

A number of tip-top matches are included in the foregoing list, and there are at least two that call for special mention.

For instance, there is the battle royal in the North between Aston Villa and Huddersfield Town in the Midlands City.

The Villa, too, has been most modestly successful, although the team has not won a game since the week ago. Drawn games have been favored by the Villa, as they have played three in succession, and five altogether.

Merseyside Rivalry. With Everton and Liverpool in action at Goodison Park, Merseyside spectators will witness perhaps the most interesting game in England on Saturday afternoon. The clubs have always been keen rivals and their forthcoming contest will be fought out on traditional lines.

Last Saturday Liverpool won 3-0 at home against Notts Forest, whereas Everton was beaten 3-1 by the County at Nottingham. Everton got the better of their rivals last campaign by a score of 2-1.

Leeds United is again at home this week, with Birmingham as their opponents.

Sunderland is going well just now. In their last two games—both away—the team beat Bolton Wanderers and Burnley. Saturday the Wearside eleven is at home to Notts County, a side that is also worthy of respect from all corners.

Second Division

The Second Division card follows: Barnsley vs. Blackpool.
Clapton Orient vs. Manchester U.
Coventry City vs. Bradford City.
Crystal Palace vs. Stockport County.
Fulham vs. Portsmouth.
Middlesbrough vs. Derby County.
Oldham Athletic vs. Stoke.
Preston North End vs. Notts County.
The Wednesday vs. Leicester City.
Southampton vs. Chelsea.
Wolverhampton vs. W. Hull City.

Will They Survive?

Derby County and Portsmouth, the only unbeaten teams in the league, are both playing from home and it will be interesting to watch whether or not they will be able to keep their record up.

Derby. If anything, has the more severe test of the two, and it is doubtful if the side will pull through. Fulham, at home, may upset Portsmouth's record, although the latter has come through stiffer ordeals.

Another titbit is the visit of Chelsea to Southampton, also the game between Manchester United and Clapton Orient in London Town.

Third Division

In the Southern Section, the leaders are at home to Bournemouth, and Plymouth has little to fear from that side. Bristol Rovers are an international team, they should pull through at Southend.

Darlington, the club that is going well in the Northern group, is due at Wrexham, where the locals may gain five points.

Among the Scots

The Scottish League, First Division, games this week are: Aberdeen vs. Alderlie, Hamilton A. vs. Cowdenbeath, Hearts vs. Motherwell, Kilmarnock vs. Third Lanark, Morton vs. Falkirk.

Queen's Park vs. Partick Thistle. Raith Rovers vs. Ayr United. St. Johnstone vs. Dundee. St. Mirren vs. Hibernian.

Airdrie Up North

The Airdrieonians, following their victory over the Rangers a week ago, have a real test awaiting them Saturday when they meet Aberdeen in the Granite City. Indeed, this will provide one of the best games of the day, and with the improvement noted in Aberdeen's play—three consecutive wins over Cowdenbeath, Partick Thistle and Queen's Park—the Lanarkshire men are certain of a warm ninety minutes at Pittodrie.

Intercounty Duel

For the first time in the history of Forfarshire and Perthshire football, teams representative of the two shires will meet in a First Division League game in the Fair City. St. Johnstone will tackle their Dundee friends with all the old-time enthusiasm that marks a clashing of the rivals in sport.

Did you ever see a Forfar vs. Perth County cricket match? Well, that's where you witness thrills and more thrills. The same intense feeling is bound to be in evidence on St. Johnstone's field Saturday afternoon.

Manchester City Goalkeeper

J. F. Mitchell, Manchester City's schoolmaster goalkeeper, is a most entertaining player to watch. It was he who invented the fashion among specialist athletes of wearing a bandage round his head to keep his glasses free from perspiration.

As a goalkeeper, he is blessed both with anticipation and quick decision, while he could teach a few lessons in the art of using his feet and hands in a melee.

Cannot Win There

There are first-class clubs in England and Scotland, but rarely do they themselves justice on certain grounds. Preston North End, for instance, have been visiting Sunderland over a wide period of years, but have never won a game on that ground.

The Hearts, in the Scottish League, have never won a league game at Warrack, and they have never won the case of Partick Thistle. The Thistle and Celtic had met in league games for over twenty-five years and not until last season did the Thistle

Sportive Punches

By the "Old Un"

The Old Un once or twice in his life has got himself disliked for something he has said on the subject of firearms. He has been sorry to get himself disliked, but he would be glad to think that on thinking it over he would be given credit for no unkind motives in the matter.

He has lived long enough and had enough experience of guns to know that, except in warfare, the "unloaded gun" is the most dangerous to human life.

The number of deaths and serious accidents caused by the careless handling of unloaded guns is an appalling one.

The only proper way to carry and handle an unloaded gun is the same as the only proper way to carry and handle a loaded one. IT'S THE HABIT WHICH COUNTS.

Not to mention the fact that every so often the gun which the handler was positive was unloaded proves to be all ready for a human victim of the careless handler or practical joker.

The Old Un's family has had one or two narrow escapes of losing its head through the Old Un getting his blown off quite unintentionally, so he feels a bit strongly on the subject.

What's in a name, we ask once more. Well, there seems to be a lot when it comes to sport. Take the heavyweight championship, for instance. What chance has anybody to win that unless his first name begins with J?

John L. was the first world's champ under Queensberry rules. Jim Corbett followed him. Then came Bob Fitzsimmons as the exception to prove the rule. Followed James J. Jeffries (three in a row there). Tommy Burns held the title for a while by deed of gift so to speak, but when Jack Johnson came along he had to let go.

Johnson passed it along to Jess Willard and Willard fell before the might of Jack Dempsey, who, with Jack Kearns as a manager, is going to hang onto it for quite a while yet.

If it was lawn tennis now, we'd bet on a BILL every time, IF HE WAS PLAYING, and the fashionable name among the ladies just now appears to be HELEN.

HELEN WILLS has carried all before her this year, but there's a HELEN JACOBS coming along 'way down in California, who, it is freely prophesied, will sooner or later take her laurels.

That reminds us. The Colonist has been putting out baseball and golf teams. Might have a good chance at lawn tennis, too, especially in the ladies' singles.

Overheard at the tee: Do you believe in the shut face or the open face when swinging your driver?

The shut face every time, and mind you don't forget it!

Four Million Dollar Game Preserve for California Sportsmen

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 2.—Articles of Incorporation of the Pacific Coast Sportsman's Club of Los Angeles, formed for the purpose of creating wild game preserves in California, today were filed with the Secretary of State. The club proposes to sell 4,000 memberships at $1,000 each and to stock 40,000 deer in the Central California with lions, wildcats, leopards, tigers and other wild animals, for hunting purposes.

BOWLERS PREPARING FOR BUSY SEASON

Two Leagues Will Be in Operation This Season—Entries Must Be in by October 25

A meeting of the city bowlers was held last evening, with Mr. C. Chislett in the chair. Great interest is being shown this year in the sport and in addition to the City League a Commercial League is being formed.

Entries for both leagues must be in before October 25, to enable the schedule to be drawn up. Both competitions will hold their first games on Monday, November 3.

The Spring Bowlers, who have already entered the City League and entries have been received from the Colonist (night staff), The Flour, Stocker Reliable Transfer, in the Commercial League.

The next meeting of the bowling association is called for Wednesday evening, the 8th inst., and all bowlers are asked to attend.

JUNIOR SOCCER

Entries for Provincial Competition (Class October 18—Lower Island Junior Cup Separate Contest)

At a meeting of the British Columbia Junior Football Association held recently, it was decided that October 18 was to be the last date on which entries were to be received for the Provincial junior cup ties. As soon as possible after that date, draws for the eliminating rounds are to be announced.

It was also decided at the meeting that October 18 was the last day for reinstatement of amateur players for all cups. Senior players wishing to be reinstated for league games only have up until February 28 to send in their applications.

Application fee for the Provincial series is $1.00 and should be forwarded to Secretary Richardson, 2448 Commercial Drive, Vancouver, without delay.

The Junior executive wished the attention of clubs to be drawn to the fact that the cup tie rules had been altered, and that it does not, now necessarily mean that the winners of the various district cups will go forward into the final rounds of the Provincial series. The district cup competitions will be run as heretofore by the district associations but the Provincial series will remain in the hands of the Provincial association as a separate competition, but they may if they deem it necessary instruct the district associations to instruct the district cup winners to the Lower Island district, the Lower Island Junior Cup will be run as a separate and distinct competition from the Provincial series.

Proceedings Brought Against Fugitive by Canon Williams Chase Instituted by Newspaper

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Immigration Commissioner H. M. Curran today recommended to Secretary of Labor Davis that the deportation proceedings instituted against Luis Angel Firpo, Argentine heavyweight, be dismissed.

Ellie Island officials said that this would entitle the pugilist to remain in the country, providing the commissioner's recommendation is not overruled by Secretary Davis.

Legal action against Firpo charging him with perjury in connection with his entry into the country last July still is pending.

A New York newspaper was said by Mr. Curran today to have been the figure behind the Firpo prosecution.

EMPIRE CONFERENCE MAY NOT CONVEY

Colonial Secretary Vouchsafes No Information and Canadian Reserve Passages for Home

LONDON, Oct. 2.—The position of matters with reference to the proposed Imperial conference here this fall, which has been talked of for a long time, still remains very indistinct.

Hon. E. M. MacDonald, Canadian Minister of Defence, and Hon. Senator R. Dandurand, who represented Canada at the League of Nations assembly at Geneva, are expected to reach London from Geneva this week, but Mr. MacDonald has reserved his passage home on the Homeric, which sails October 22, and Senator Dandurand, it is understood, also is averse to being kept here in connection with the conference.

J. H. Thomas, Colonial Secretary, has not yet mentioned any date for the Imperial conference.

BRITAIN AND U.S. BOUND IN UNION

TWENTIETH CENTURY IN KEEP-ING OF TWO NATIONS

Mr. Edward Barker Stresses International Goodwill at Anacortes—
Rotary Banquet Here

"The civilization of the twentieth century is in the keeping of Great Britain and the United States and a common destiny and common interest will draw these two great Anglo-Saxon nations even closer together in the future," declared Rotarian Edward P. Barker, of the Anacortes Rotary Club, in delivering the keynote address last night at the international Rotary gathering, held by the Rotary Clubs of Anacortes and Victoria, in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the Anacortes Rotary Club and their ladies journeyed to Sidney yesterday afternoon, on the ferry plying between these two points, and were met at the latter place by local Rotarians, who escorted them into Victoria by motor. The visitors arrived at the banquet hall at 7:30 p.m., and were accorded a vociferous Rotary welcome. Dinner was immediately served. Vice-President James Hunter presiding over the first part of the proceedings, after which President Reilly handled the gavel. Ex-Senator W. V. Wells, president of the Anacortes Rotary Club, conducted the programme.

Cordial Relations Exist

In an inspiring address, Mr. Ed. Barker asserted that relations between the United States and Great Britain were never so cordial as they were today.

The world today needs disinterested friendship and unselfish service more than ever in its history, stated Rev. John Landsborough, of Anacortes.

Past President Percy Abell, formerly installed Master, Frank Kidd, John R. Clarke, Bill Sheret and T. O. Mackay as members of the Victoria club. Mr. Charles Drummond Hay was elected into Rotary membership.

A fine musical programme was given, Mrs. Grace Burnham and Mrs. W. V. Wells, of Anacortes, rendering delightful musical numbers.

JAPAN REASSERTS POLICY AS TO CHINA

Foreign Minister Reiterates No Intervention in Republic—Watches
Interests of Nationals

TOKIO, Oct. 2.—Baron Mijuro Shidehara, Japanese Foreign Minister, today reiterated the Government's declared policy in regard to China, asserting that Japan must refrain absolutely from intervention as she expects a similar policy will be carried out by the other nations.
He added that non-intervention in China by the Japanese Government did not mean that the vital Japanese interests in Manchuria and Mongolia would be neglected. Those interests were being closely watched by the Government, he concluded.

INITIATIONS LACK OLD-TIME DEFECTS

Admissions to Alma Mater Society at University of British Columbia
Feature Impressiveness

VANCOUVER, Oct. 2.—Initiation ceremonies at the University of British Columbia tonight will likely set a precedent which will be held by universities and colleges throughout the United States and Canada, in the belief of the students of the local institution, which initiated the Freshmen and Freshettes into the Alma Mater society. There was no jostling or man-handling, there was no paint or evil-smelling chemicals, there was no trace of the old idea of initiation that has completely lost favor in the University of British Columbia.

Every act in the whole ceremony was impressive in its seriousness. The talks given by the student leaders in a dim light referred to sports and academic standing, and the oath of allegiance to the senior students also embodied a vow to carry on with the professors in an effort to attain a high academic standing which was particularly emphasized.

Oilier Oils Up With Poison, But Lives to Tell All About It

Last night, just before 10 o'clock, a man walked into a downtown billiard hall and in a sepulchral voice asked the proprietor for a glass of water. He said he was sick and, according to the proprietor, he looked sick—he looked as though he was all tied up in a fit of indigo-hued glooms.

The glass of water was given him. He took a small bottle from his coat pocket, tipped it up over the glass of water and drank.

"It will be all over in a few minutes now," he groaned as he handed back the empty glass. The proprietor became alarmed.

"What was that you took?" he demanded.

The stranger in answer held up to him the bottle. It was labelled poison.

In front of the hall was a member of the city detective department who had dropped in to buy some tobacco. The proprietor told him of the antics of his queer customer, and the stranger was rushed to the police station. Doctors Hart and Hunter were called and a hurried examination was made, the stranger complaining meanwhile of horrible pains in his stomach.

But the doctors could find no symptoms of poison. In the man's pockets were discovered four small bottles, all labelled poison, and all empty. He was sent to the Royal Jubilee Hospital, where he is being carefully watched. The hospital reported at a late hour last night that he was resting quietly and did not appear to be seriously ill.

From letters found in one of his pockets the man's name is J. F. Dean. Among his effects were several discharge papers from different steamships whereon he had served as oiler.

A tribe of aboriginal inhabitants of Ceylon are said to have entirely lost the sensation of laughter.

DOMINION Motion pictures are responsible for the most disgusted fishermen on Catalina Island, world-famous placardial Paradise. Sharks, be it known, are the pariahs of fishdom. Self-respecting anglers will cut their lines rather than haul them in. But sharks were required for Cecil B. De Mille's new Paramount picture, "Feet of Clay," now showing at the Dominion Theatre, and for two weeks the technical director and his aides industriously hauled them in. Not, however, without the grumbles of an experienced launchman, who felt himself shark-beamed after years with the more respectable tuna and sword fish. "Feet of Clay" features Rod La Rocque, Vera Reynolds, the new De Mille "find," and many others.

PLAYHOUSE Training on caters instead of wheels is exactly what has been done in Hollywood. Of course, it was for a movie. Laurette Taylor, who is now appearing in Metro's "Happiness" at the Playhouse Theatre, is shown riding in a New York subway train. Since it is not practical to bring a train in the studio, King Vidor had his research experts supervise the construction of the passenger part of a dummy subway train. The whole set was mounted on casters and when the train was supposed to come to an abrupt standstill all the property men gave the car a violent tug, and the extras were thrown hither and yon in order to reproduce a rush hour scene in New York.

COLISEUM (Latin) superlatives and THEATRE (Greek) operative gestures were used with entire abandon by Titta Rufo, famous baritone, in his praise of the gigantic set used in the filming of Victor Hugo's classic, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," which is now showing at the Coliseum Theatre. The operative star, who was appearing in a concert programme at the Philharmonic Auditorium in Los Angeles, visited Universal City during his stay in Los Angeles and was personally conducted over the beauty of the production of the famous quarter of medieval Paris that he voiced his praise in song. After his tour he was the dinner guest of

ISLE OF SPICE IS STAGED WITH FAR EASTERN SETTINGS

THIS MAN WOULDN'T OBJECT TO SALOON ON HIS LAND; OH, NO!

Tom Mix believes in proper procedure and all the amenities. At Palm Springs, California, recently, where the William Fox star and his company were shooting a sequence in "The Hunchback," it was necessary that a saloon be shown in the picture. The main street of the little desert town was used for scenes and Director Reynolds decided the saloon could be erected on an empty lot on the main street.

RIVALS THE BEAUTY OF THE SCARLET TANGAR

Yes, the Real Duofold for Only $5

(Just Like the $7 Duofold Except for Size)

Jewel-Smooth 25-Year Point and All

STURDY Duofold Jr. and slender Lady Duofold at $5 each are not distant relatives, but full-blooded Parker Duofolds—the same stock, race and strain as the $7 Over-size Duofold with the extra big ink capacity. Except for size, the same in every respect.

The same black-tipped lacquer-red barrel. The same jewel-smooth point guaranteed, if not misread, for 25 years' wear. The same Press-Button Filler, capped inside the barrel where it can't mar the beauty or catch on the clothing. The same Ink-Tight Duo-Sieve Cap and the sure-fire "Lucky Curve" feed. And the same classic symmetry and balance that inspire the hand to write, and to write clear and strong.

Whenever you write, or land a pen—pull a good one! You can't keep your mind on your work if an ailing pen demands your attention. And you don't want to carry a pen that you have to apologize for. This price leaves no reason why you should.

Any good pen counter will sell you Parker Duofold—take it to school—take it to work—speed learning and earning.

Later the star asked the hotel proprietor where the lot owner could be found.

"Just now he is out of town," the hotel man replied.

"You'll find him in the county jail, doing sixty days for bootlegging."

DR. DAVIES TO SPEAK BEFORE RADIO CLUB AT MEETING TONIGHT

Rev. Dr. Clement Davies is to address the Victoria Radio Club tonight, at the New Thought Temple on "Radio and Religion." This is the first meeting of the club in their new home, and Dr. Davies has consented to give the opening address. A very interesting programme has been arranged which includes a demonstration of a powerful Ultradyne Set by Mr. William H. Christie. Mr. Jack Frampton, well known local radio expert, is to address the local fans on "Radio Circuits." The meeting is to start at 8 o'clock, and all radio fans are invited to attend.

GIVES RESIDENCE TO CITY TEMPLE

DR. ERNEST HALL, MAKES GIFT OF FORT STREET HOME

Building Will Be Used for Mid-Week Meetings—No New Church Structure Planned

Arrangements have been completed by which the City Temple will take over the Dr. Ernest Hall residence on the corner of Fort and St. Charles Streets. Dr. Hall has made a free gift of this large residence to the City Temple for an auxiliary meeting place, together with all the furnishings. It is expected that midweek services and auxiliary meetings of the various church organizations will be held there and the spacious rooms on the lower floor of this three-story residence will be arranged to seat a considerable number of people. The place will also house the office and headquarters of the Victoria City Temple.

No steps are contemplated for the erection of a church edifice at the present time. In a statement concerning this Dr. Davies said last night: "We have nearly a million dollars' worth of churches within throwing distance in one portion of the city. There are more than enough structures now without waiting any more of the people's money, and the people are 'hard up' at the present time without adding any more burdens. The Royal Victoria Theatre is not large enough now to accommodate our congregation, and it would require an immense amount of money to build a larger auditorium than the Royal Victoria. That place is at our disposal for an indefinite period and is not used on Sundays, and the city has gone to great expense to erect it and we shall try to make that building suffice for our Sunday programme.

"We are badly in need of a place for midweek activities and Dr. Hall's splendid gift is a blessing from heaven itself. We carry neither purse nor scrip. Our desire is not to amass finance and large buildings, but to become a focusing point for direct religious and social service to our city. We have no other wish nor excuse for existence. Our mission is to reach the great multitude of the unchurched and to salvage humanity with our social programme and continue our religious educational programme to men the youth from making blunders later on. Prevention as well as cure will be our motto."

Seven polo ponies belonging to the Prince of Wales were auctioned off at Long Island, netting $18,000 for the royal purse. Kitty, on the left, went for $2,500, and Tynside Lassie brought $3,100.

Fancy skating experts gave Londoners a demonstration on the roof of a large departmental store there recently. The rink was a giant tank to which was attached a freezing apparatus.

It has been found that there are over 1,500,000 Jews living in the city of New York, really a small nation in itself. Photograph shows a quaint Jewish bread shop on the East Side.

This Viennese artist, Gussy Goltz, in barbaric headdress and costume, gives a striking portrayal of a Slav dance in the dances of nations.

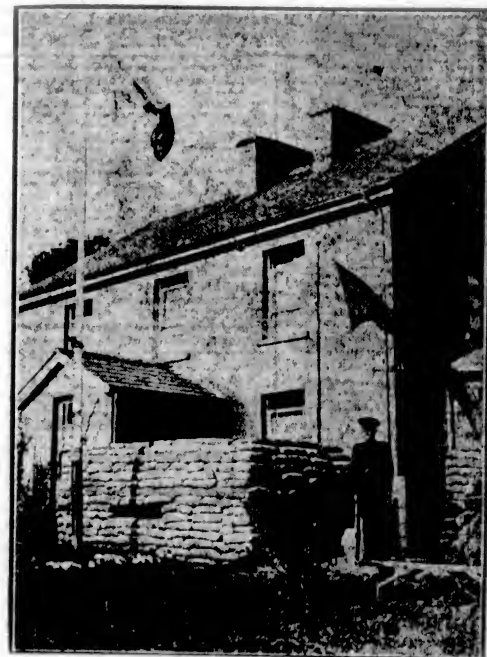

A full rehearsal of the Battle of Balacava was held at Wembley Stadium recently. Photograph shows a clever riding feat by a "Cossack".

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Robertson, of Toronto, are shown in Los Angeles, with their car well packed ready to make the long return motor trip to their home in Canada.

A race on ordinary bicycles, as the old-time vehicles are known in England, was one of the features of the Twelfth Annual Meeting of Cycling champions. H. Walede, of Australia, is shown being given a "leg-up".

Donald MacMillan, noted Arctic explorer, is shown attired in his northern costume. In his arms, hardly distinguishable because of the fur coat, are a pair of blue foxes.

In the dances of nations, as portrayed by Viennese artists, Riki Raab gives her idea of a piquant Parisian toe dancer.

The marriage between Sir Godfrey Thomas, principal private secretary to the Prince of Wales, and Miss Diana Hoskyns, daughter of the Archdeacon of Chichester, took place recently at Chichester Cathedral.

The S.S. Lethbridge, one of two grain carriers and package freighters, which have been added to the Great Lakes service of the Canada Steamship Lines, is shown on its arrival in Canadian waters from England.

UP-SWING CHECKED
BY HEAVY SELLINGLiquidation and Bear Attack Effect-

Stocks, Which Close Lower

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Heavy sell-brought about sufficient liquidation with bear selling in other sections of the list to check effectively the upward movement of prices in today's stock market, leaving quotations lower. Unfavorable interpretation placed by some professionalists upon recent political developments was also a factor in the day's selling.

Extraordinary strength of the prices for the year, including such widely diversified stocks as Mon-

Frisco's New High

An opening gain of more than six points in Frisco preferred, which closed a new high at 73 1/2, in reflection of the inauguration of dividends, was the outstanding feature in the railway group. The stock closed later at 71 1/2.Gulf, Mobile and Northern preferred also bettered their previous top prices. Most of the other railroad issues moved within rather narrow limits.American Can closed a point lower at 132, and most of the other standard industrial yields fractionally.

Specialties React

High-priced specialties reacted rather sharply when pressed for sale.
Nash Motors broke six points, and looses of two or more points took place in a number of other issues.Time money and commercial paper rates were unchanged, with business quiet.Foreign exchanges reacted in reflection of the heavy volume of grain and cotton bills. Demand sterling ruled about three-quarters of a cent lower, around 48 1/2, and French francs were quoted just above 5 1/2.
Brazilian milreis rallied sharply on denial of revolution rumors.Heavy buying of Frisco Railway issues, based on the inauguration of preferred dividends by the road, was the outstanding feature of the bond market. Price fluctuations generally were narrow, with a firm undertone prevailing.

ADVANCE CONTINUES
ON WINNIPEG MARKETOpening Strong, and Closing Prices
Were Near the Day's High
Of One-Fifty-SixWINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—Unsettled weather in the West which will further delay threshing, light receipts and steadily increasing bullish news from Europe, imparted further strength to the wheat market today and prices rose rapidly after the opening. The wheat market today was very strong, and before trading had progressed very far the "bears" were sent to cover. At the high point October touched 156 1/2, with the close near the top for a gain of 5 1/2 cents. November improved
5 1/2 cents, December 5 1/2 cents and May 5 1/2 cents. Both rye and flax made gains ranging from 7 cents to 10 cents.Wheat—1 nor., 158 1/2; 2 nor.,

Lumber Market Reaches Season's Lowest Level

Three Million Feet of Lumber Will Be Exported From Local Mills as Compared With Six Million Feet Last Month—Presidential Election Shows Up on American Market—Ocean Freight Market Strengthens, However, to Strengthen

A GENERAL slump on the local lumber market opened the October orders. Whereas some 6,000,000 feet of lumber were exported from local mills last month, this month will see the moving of practically only 3,000,000 feet of lumber.

This fall's slump is attributed to the weakness of the United States market owing to the presidential campaign and the bottom having fallen out of the Australian lumber market. Australia bought heavily some time ago when lumber was at its lowest, with the result that with the upward trend in prices she has curtailed her orders. Only a few small shipments will leave for the Antipodes this month, including a small shipment of doors from Lemon, Gossnau & Co.

The Canadian Puget Sound Lumber & Timber Company had several large orders for delivery but nothing to compare with last month, which proved to be the busiest so far this year. Until the old lumber has been disposed of in Japan, no orders of any considerable size are expected, despite the fact that there has been a strengthening of this market as indicated on the charter market. All that the United Kingdom is taking now are small shipments of clear, and these are not numerous, while there is a noticeable sagging in the intercontinental market.

Not only in Victoria feeling the slump, but Mainland mills and, in fact, the entire Pacific Northwest. There is a feeling, however, that the record low levels have been reached and that the ocean freight market will gradually strengthen. The California market is looking better, but is expected to improve toward the later fall season.

The crux of the situation is the amount of lumber Japan is likely to buy during the next six months. If orders come in freely rates are certain to advance. It is safe, however, to predict they will not decline further, for in that event owners will cease to operate. In the last two weeks the indications have been somewhat improved, judging by inquiry from Japan.

Ships Due for Lumber
So far this month only three ships are reported due here to load lumber. The Kina Maru is expected here on October 10 to load some 1,000,000 feet of lumber, 600,000 feet of which will be provided by the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber & Timber Company.

The Kigaway is reported due October 8 to load 400,000 feet of lumber, while 150,000 feet of lumber are being shipped by scows to the Canadian Scottish, now at Nanaimo. A Japanese liner is due about the middle of the month to load 500,000 feet, while the Moore-Whittington yards report two small parcels for ships not yet named. These parcels total some 350,000 feet of lumber.

connected with the visit of the Fleet to this country. While on a previous visit to Great Britain, Mr. Harris promised Sir Archibald and Lady Campbell, when stopping at their estate outside of Glasgow, to bring them, when next he made the trip, a couple of Canadian geese. True to his word and to prove once more that the Navy League never forgets, Mr. Harris obtained two of the finest specimens of Canadian geese in the country from Jack Miller, the famous bird lover, from his place at Kinross, and is taking the birds over with him. He obtained special permission from the Canadian Government to take the geese with him, and last night argued the question of prohibition to a draw. The British team, led by Malcolm MacDonald, son of the British Premier, argued against prohibition, while the United States team took the affirmative.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—Debating teams representing Columbia University and Oxford University last night argued the question of prohibition to a draw. The British team, led by Malcolm MacDonald, son of the British Premier, argued against prohibition, while the United States team took the affirmative.

MARINERS LASHED TO RAFT DROWNED

MASTER AND HELPER OF TROLLEY FOUND

Vessel Believed to Have Been Caught in Gale and Men Took to Raft

ASTORIA, Ore., Oct. 2.—Coroner Hughes has charge of the bodies of Kalle Rinne, aged 35, master of the trolley boat Union, and Gust Cornelius, Rinne's helper, who perished near the mouth of the Columbia River after lashing themselves to a raft. The coroner notified Rinne's widow, who with her three-year-old daughter, has been visiting in Seattle since Rinne disposed of his interest recently in the Hotel Charleston, Seattle.

Otto Kola, Ilwaco trolley, was in the river last Tuesday when he noticed a raft pitching on the waves and discovered two bodies lashed to it. Despite the high seas he managed to take the men, Cornelius, from the raft after noting that he showed signs of life and made for Fort Canby. Here efforts were made to resuscitate the man, but without success. The coast guard crew later found the raft with its other occupant.

It was believed that the men were caught in a gale, feeling that their craft could not survive had lashed together the raft and trusted themselves to the mercy of the waves.

Japanese Manoeuvres Commenced Yesterday

Training Squadron Will Leave for This Coast Shortly After October 24—One Hundred and Eighty Ships Taking Part in Four-Week Manoeuvres—Warships Aki and Satsuma Will Be Used as Targets and Sunk—Prince Regent Supervising Operations

IT was learned here today that the Japanese Training Squadron, comprising the Asama, Azuma and Kirishima will leave on her tour of Canadian and United States ports shortly after the manoeuvres which are to be held by Japan in October.

The first grand manoeuvres since the Washington Conference commenced yesterday and will continue until October 24. It was announced in a special advice received here today. They are under the direct supervision of the Prince Regent, acting in behalf of the Emperor. Much significance is attached to them, inasmuch as they will show the fighting strength of the Imperial Navy, which was restricted at the Washington meeting.

The manoeuvres are being held along the Japan coast in the Pacific. The last ones were held in 1919 under the personal supervision of the Emperor.

One hundred and eighty vessels, including 63 from the combined squadron and the remaining ships attached to the Yokosuka, Kure and Sasebo naval stations, and Mako, Maesuru, Chinkai and Omimoto naval depots are participating in the operations.

The war crafts engaged in the last manoeuvres numbered 134. Since then there has been an increase of 54 warships. As a result of the Naval Treaty made at the Washington Conference, the number of battleships was cut from twelve to six, battle cruisers from twenty to sixteen.

Torpedo boats, though, have been increased from 57 to 105 vessels, and submarines from ten to twenty-six. The increase of auxiliary ships and the long period of manoeuvres will cause an expense of $2,500,000 to the Government. Seventy per cent of this will be spent in fuel.

The grand navy review, usually following the manoeuvres, will not be held this year because of lack of funds.

A feature of the manoeuvres will be the sinking of the warships Aki and Satsuma at Tateyama in Tokyo Bay. The ships will be towed from Yokosuka to Tateyama and will be moored there later on in the manoeuvres when they will be made targets of the Mutsu and Nagato, before they are sunk by bombs dropped from the air. The Prince Regent will view the firing on the destined ships from the deck of the battleship Nagato.

freight agent, which office has been confirmed by promulgation today.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST RAILWAY STEALERS

"RIDING THE RAILS" TO BE CUT TO MINIMUM

Nation-Wide Campaign Against Free Riders to Be Inaugurated by Canadian Railways

WINNIPEG, Oct. 2.—Gentlemen of leisure who follow their business, or lack of it, calls them from one place of temporary residence to another, are due for a rude shock. A determined drive against those who attempt to do their traveling in "hide-door Pullmans" or by means of "riding the rails" has been launched by the railway companies, and this drive is to be prosecuted to the bitter end. By co-operation between railway, provincial and municipal police forces, magistrates and other guardians of the law, it is hoped to reduce this traffic to a minimum and bring about a drastic diminution in the numbers of non-paying guests carried by the railways in Western Canada.

Police officers are being instructed to steel their hearts against the pleas of would-be free travelers and bring them to trial on charges of trespassing and stealing rides, and magistrates everywhere have promised their co-operation by stiffening up the sentences imposed on those who follow this dangerous and illegal practice. A large percentage of the serious and fatal accidents on Canadian railways, it is pointed out, involve persons who are trespassing on railway property, and by reducing the amount of trespassing, it is hoped to reduce the number of injuries and fatalities which are every year charged against Canadian railways. A number of cases have also arisen where trespassers have been killed or injured by trains, and these cases have been caused as well as the perpetrated, affecting not only the railways, but private persons. These facts, as well as the fact that those who have menaced the traveling public, are behind the drive which is now being launched.

TRoubled With ECZEMA YEARS

In Pimples Between Knee and Ankle, Itched Badly. Cuticura Healed.

"I was troubled with eczema for three or four years. It broke out in pimples between my knee and ankle and itched badly, especially at night. The irritation caused me to scratch and the scratching caused eruptions. I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it helped me. I purchased more, and after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Alice Clark, Marshfield, Vt., July 16, 1923. Keep your skin clear by using Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum for every-day toilet purposes. Touch pimples and itching, if any, with Cuticura Ointment. Bathe with Cuticura Soap and hot water. Dry and dust lightly with Cuticura Talcum. Sample sent free by mail. Address: Cuticura, Dept. 5, P.O. Box 100, Lowell, Mass. U.S.A. Write for free booklet, "How to Cure Your Skin Troubles."
